Description

A TRUE JEANNEAU YACHT, STARTING AT 50&rsquo;

The world is rich with extraordinary destinations. The Jeanneau 51 was created to take you there.

The Jeanneau 51 benefits from the latest innovations that have made Jeanneau Yachts so successful: unequalled level of finish, unrivalled quality of life aboard and maximum ease of handling.

Inspired by the Jeanneau 54, this new model was designed by naval architect, Philippe Briand and designer, Andrew Winch. Living spaces have been carefully studied, with meticulous attention to detail and the use of fine materials, to contribute to an excellent cruising experience and a luxurious lifestyle on board.

Call MGM Boats now to discuss your preferred specification.

Purchase - Commissioning - Delivery

MGM Boats have almost 20 years experience supplying new boats to our customers. From the first contact right through to handover day, we will be with you to ensure your lifelong ambition of fine yacht ownership is a memorable experience at every phase of the purchasing process.

We utilize the only factory approved company to commission our yachts in France. This can be carried out on either the French Atlantic or French Mediterranean coast to suit your cruising area. Any additional equipment can be sourced and installed during commissioning. We will be on site to meet you upon your arrival for final handover.

We understand people lead busy lives. If you require your new yacht to be delivered to your home port we can arrange this through our network of professionally qualified delivery crews.
